1 A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE CITY OF WINSTON-SALEM UPON ITS 2 CENTENNIAL.

3
4 Whereas, the Town of Salem was established in 1766 by members of the Moravian
5 church to administer their colony in North Carolina called Wachovia; and the town became an 6 important center for business and commerce in Northwest North Carolina and was incorporated 7 by act of the North Carolina General Assembly in 1857; and

8 Whereas, the Town of Winston was established immediately north of Salem to serve 9 as the county seat upon the formation of Forsyth County in 1849; was incorporated by act of 10 the North Carolina General Assembly in 1859; and experienced remarkable growth during the 11 latter half of the 19th Century; and

12 Whereas, following decades of cooperation in civic affairs, the citizens of Winston 13 and Salem voted to consolidate their municipal governments as the City of Winston-Salem and,
14 by act of the North Carolina General Assembly, this consolidation took effect May 9, 1913; and 15 Whereas, the new town was led by Mayor Oscar B. Eaton and Aldermen E. D.

16 Vaughn, C. M. Cain, G. E. Webb, P. S. Bailey, N. D. Dowdy, G. W. Edwards, H. F. Shaffner, 17 and F. A. Fogle and has since been led by a succession of able elected officials; and

18 Whereas, Winston-Salem was North Carolina's leading city during the 1920s and 19 gave rise to such national corporations as R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Wachovia Bank and 20 Trust Co., Hanes Knitting, Hanes Dye and Finishing, and Piedmont Airlines; and

21 Whereas, Winston-Salem served as a model for other cities during the Civil Rights
22 Era by establishing North Carolina's first integrated firehouse in 1951, peacefully desegregating 23 its schools in 1957, and providing the first North Carolina victory of the Sit-In Movement in 24 1960; and

25 Whereas, Winston-Salem has long been nationally recognized for leadership in the 26 arts, having established the nation's first Arts Council in 1949, and serving as home to the 27 University of North Carolina School of the Arts, which was the nation's first state-supported 28 arts conservatory; and

29 Whereas, Winston-Salem is known as "The City of the Arts & Innovation" and is 30 home to numerous performing arts organizations as well as the National Black Theatre Festival, 31 The Southeast Center for Contemporary Art, Reynolda House Museum of American Arts, the 32 Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts, Old Salem Museums and Gardens, the RiverRun
33 International Film Festival, Diggs Gallery at Winston-Salem State University, and Delta Fine 34 Arts Center; and

1 Whereas, Winston-Salem's civic leaders aggressively met the challenges of a 2 changing local economy in the 1990s by rebuilding the economy on knowledge-based 3 industries, including establishing the Piedmont Triad Research Park in order to augment the 4 city's traditional economic base with technology, medicine, and finance; and

5 Whereas, the City of Winston-Salem has been recognized as one of America's Top 6 10 Digital Cities for 11 years in a row, is listed as one of America's Ten Most Livable Cities by 7 Partners for Livable Cities, one of America's 50 Best Cities by Newsweek, one of America's 8 Best Downtowns by Forbes, a Top 10 Place to Retire by CBS, a Top 25 Location for 9 Biotechnology by Business Facilities, and has been cited 22 other times in the past 10 years for 10 the favorable business climate, quality of life, cost of living, and other measures; and 11 Whereas, 2013 marks the 100th anniversary of the consolidation of Winston and 12 Salem, an occasion worthy of celebration by all North Carolinians; Now, therefore, 13 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

14 SECTION 1. The House of Representatives honors the early leaders of 15 Winston-Salem and joins with the citizens of Winston-Salem in celebrating the City's 100th 16 anniversary.

17 SECTION 2. The Principal Clerk shall transmit a certified copy of this resolution 18 to the Mayor of the City of Winston-Salem.

19 SECTION 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.
